TOP 100

Plarad is among Germany's 100 most innovative companies

TOP 100

The award "Top 100" stands for the innovative strength of the company certified by independent scientists.

More than 2000 companies have entered the contest of "Top 100". Plarad came off as winner in the categories "Innovative Success", "Innovative Marketing", "Innovative processes and organization", "Innovative climate" as well as "Innovative supporting top-management" and received the award!

On June 26, 2009 the official award ceremony took place in the former guest house of the German government, "Grandhotel Petersberg" near Bonn. Being the patron of this benchmarking marketing project, Prof. Dr. Lothar Spaeth, former Prime Minister of Baden-Württemberg, ceremoniously presented the award to the winners that evening.

Plarad's Innovation Highlights are for example the IQ-Dual-Power power pack with its trend-setting and forward-looking technology and the exceptional service performance of the company. The Plarad Competence Centres stand for outstanding service by experts – customer friendly and direct.

More highlights from Plarad can be expected in the future!
